WEATHER BULLETIN: WEATHER BUREAU,
DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
WICHITA, KRD., Nov. 4, 1893. Forecast for Wichita and vicinity-Fair and continued warm until Wednes-

During the past twenty-four hours the highest temperature was 67, the lowest 87 and the mean 52, with clear weather, resh south wind and slowly falling bar-

Thus far this month the average tem perature has been 48.

For the past five years the average temperature for the month of November has been 43, and for the 6th day 50. FRED L. JOHNSON, Observer.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.- The following is the forecast up to S p. m. Sunday: For Kansas-Fair brisk and high south winds, shifting to westerly; cooler Tues-

For Missouri- Fair; continued warm southerly winds.

CONWAY SPRINGS ITEMS.

Conway Springs, Kau, Nov. 6.—The Gray and Riggs law suit was terminated last Thursday in the district court, by the jury deciding in favor of Mr. Riggs. This has been a long and protracted trial. Two last the second protracted trial. Two last the second protracted trial is the institute of the last the last trial trial trial trials. juries sat on this case in the justice's sourt, the first disagreeing, the second de-eiding in favor of Mr. Riggs. The costs in this case are over $1,500. Over one hundred witnesses were subpoensed in Con-way Springs and vicinity. The whole amount in controversy between Mr. Gray and Mr. Riggs was less than $200.

Gray and Mr. Riggs was less than 820.

Mr. Gray claimed that his corn was daminged by Mr. Riggs' stock in the early part of the year 1891.

Mr. D. S. Miller has moved his meat shop four doors east of his old stand, where he is conveniently located.

Mr. John T. Chitwood is now occupying the old stand of Mr. Millers with a general stock of merchandise.

Mr. F. L. Warburton and wife returned last Saturday from their wedding tour.

Mr. Warburton has been living in Conway Springs for the past two years. He will be greatly missed from the society of wedding was a very quiet, yet a very neat affair. Only a few of the latimate friends of the bride and groom were present. Mr. Talbert has been a resident of Conway Springs for many years, and is well liked and complete arrangements.

by the people. The bride, Miss Barnett,

mas been a resident of the city of Conway

Springs for the past seven years, and is a

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 6.—Ba

Mr. H. T. Bentley has returned from an ay, but, upon request of attorneys securrd for him by his brother paper carriers, the case was continued by Judge Dunne antil November 2. The lawyers for the defense stated that they desired time to study the case. Prendergast's attorneys are A. S. Wade of Chicago and R. Essex of St. Joseph Mo.

of St. Joseph Mo.

Mr. Wade, the principal counsel for Prendegrast, admitted that the defense would be a plea of insanity. The chief ground on which the court granted a control of the town, but the burgiars escaped. They buance was that it would be necessary to send to distant states for witnesses re-carding the early life and habits of the

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

CMICAGO, Nov. 6 .- The national commisson of the Columbian exposition adjourned sine die today. President Palmer | capture of Bohannan. will now convene the executive committee, which will act for the commission, with tull power to decide any questions which e national commission had to give up because of lack of a quorum.
The model of the United States treasury building, built of souvenir cotos, and which was situated in the administration building, was torn down today. The come in the edifice remaining unsold aggregate about 50,000 half doilars. They will be retailed at $1 apiece until the demand is exhausted, when what are left will be returned to the mint for redemption at their face value

BANK WRECKER MOSHER.

OMAHA, Nov. 6. - Following out the orfive years' sentence for perjury, forgery and embezzlement while acting as presiienr of the Capitol National bank of Lincoln. He was sentenced last May, but since then has been allowed practically

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 6 -Judge John-

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live beter than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly tdapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid axative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs. Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect lax-stive; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidaeys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance. Syrup of Figs is for sale by all drug-gists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manafactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not scept any substitute if offered.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL WASHINGTON Nov 6 -"If the majority of the ways and means committee not really expect to have the tariff bill ready before the beginning of the regular session, the bringing in and passage of a resolution indicating earlier action seems to me to be unfortunate," said Mr. Reed of

He continued; "I am informed that a good many manufacturers, expecting that there would be no final action by congress on the tariff until next spring, were pre-paring to resume operations which have been suspended for some time, and keep their works running for a few months at iess, but that most of them will now de cide not to do so. Mr. Russell, of Con-necticut, who is interested in woolen manufacturing, told me yesterday that he thought that would be the effect."

OBITUARY.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Sir Andrew Clark died at 5 o'ctock this afternoon. He was Mr. Gladstone's physician, and was one of the most distinguished men in the medical

St. Petersburg, Nov. 6.-Peter Tchak-

CONDEMNED TO DIE.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 6.-Both divisions of the supreme court as a court in bane were in session today. The court in banc overruled the motion for a rehearing in the case of Samuel Welsor; the St. ouis murderer, who shot his mistress, Clementine Morning, in 1899. The court sentenced him to pe hanged on Dec. 15

WHISKY AND MURDER.

ELYRIA, O. Nov. 6.-Charles Manning while crazy drunk tonight, shot and killed Last Tuesday evening the first of the five lectures on the world's fair by Rev. E. J. Brown was delivered in the Methodist Episcopal church of this place. The church was well filled, and the lecture is highly spoken of by all who beard it. The second of these lectures will be delivered in the Methodist Episcopal church was well filled, and the lecture is highly spoken of by all who beard it. The second of these lectures will be delivered in the Methodist Episcopal church and the second of these lectures will be delivered in the Methodist Episcopal church and the will recover. Mrs. Manuing had begun proceedings for a discovered in the Methodist Episcopal church and the second of these lectures will be delivered in the Methodist Episcopal church and the second of these lectures will be delivered in the Methodist Episcopal church and the second of these lectures will be delivered in the Methodist Episcopal church and the second of these lectures will be delivered in the Methodist Episcopal church and the second of these lectures will be delivered in the Methodist Episcopal church and the second of the second of these lectures will be delivered in the Methodist Episcopal church and the second of the second of these lectures will be delivered in the Methodist Episcopal church and the second of the second of the second of the second of these lectures will be delivered in the Methodist Episcopal church and the second of the sec

BASEBALL.

St. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 6 -The organiza-tion of the Western Baseball League has at last been completed, and will enter Mr. G. A. Talbert and Miss Effie Barnett were married last Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's father. The city, Sioux City, Detroit, Indianapolis, cities; Minneapolis, Milwaukee, Kuasas city, Sioux City, Detroit, Indianapolis, Columbus and Toledo. St. Paul and Omaba could not make a sufficiently strong showing. A meeting will be held in Chicago on November 10 to elect officers and complete arrangements.

BREIDENTHAL STOOD OFF.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 6 .- Bank Commissloper Breidenthal today wired Attorney Mr. H. T. Bentley has returned from an attended trip in the east.

Mrs. P. B. Blakemore returned from the vorld's fair.

ASSASSIN PRENDERGAST.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6 — Mayor Harrison's assain, Prendergast, appeared for trial togas, but, upon request of attorneys securiary bank refuses to allow Mr. Breidenthal to make an examination of its affairs. The administrator of the Bulley estate claims that he is an officer of the probate court, and that the bank commissioner has no right to interfere with property that is in his bands.

Prof. J. S. Cilley of Jerico, Vt., says: "I regard Hood's Sarsaparilla as invaluable SAFE-BLOWERS. and blew open the safe. The explosion awakened nearly half the inhabitants of the town, but the burgiars escaped. They got but little boary.

As a drawing attraction Prendegrast is a failure. The public seems to take little interest in him or the trial. Today's proceedings were utterly devoid of the features dear to sensation lovers.

A FRONTIER KILLER.

CADDO, I. T., Nov 6—Dave Bohannan, who killed Ben Foreman of South McAlester last September, and who has never been arrested for the crime, quarreled with Dr. Rasel. with Dr. Roaca over a net at a borse race near Enid, last Saturday. Bobannan koocked Roach down, gave him a severe beating, took his pistol away from him, and shot at him. It is said that Foreman's widow will offer a reward of $500 for the

THE OSAGE COUNCIL.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Nov. 6.—The They want a love-gift, not alms, trand connell of the Osage nation con-Generally they have to ask at last. grand connell of the Osage nation convened today at Pawbuskie for legislative business. A powwow was anticipated and as warm a time as at the last session of the congress. There are fifteen members. The presiding officer is Suite Trumbly.

A VALUABLE REMEDY

Hop, Edmond L. Pitts, the late president of the New York state senate, writes: "STATE OF NEW YORK, SENATE CAAM-ER, ALBANY, March 11, 1885-I have set Allcock's Porons Plasters in my for the past five years and can on the court, Bank Wrecker C. W. Mosher will be delivered to the Sioux Walls penitentiary on Saturday, to serve a given some to friends suffering with weak and lame backs, and they have invariably afforded certain and speedy relief. They cannot be too highly commended."

THE ENGLISH MINERS.

LONDON, Nov. 6 .- T. P. O'Connor, M. P. Milwauker, Wis., Nov. 6—Judge Johnson today occided that the indictments found by the late grand jury against Disectors Edilott and Noyes of the Plankin-on bank are invalid, because the grand jury returned them before its term exted. This occision invalidates all the faitness against the officers of the Plankinton and the South Side Savings of a national emergency, and in danger of a national emergency, and in danger of a national crisis. It is time for the nation to interfere, as the coal mine owners have declared war against the nation. in an article in the San, urges the govern-

BAYARD BANQUETED. LIVERPOLOL, Nov. 6.-The lord mayor gave a banquet at the town hall this evening in honor of Thomas F. Bayard, the American embassador. Mr. Bayard re-American embassador. Mr. Bayard responded at some tength in response to a toast to himself. He was followed by Consul General Collins, who spoke to he teast, "The Commercial Interests of

NEW TRIALS GRANTED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.-The supreme court today granted new trials to two Indian Territory inurderers-John Brown, who killed Josiah Pourbey and Deputy Marshal Thomas W Whitehead, and Marshal Thomas W. Whitehead, and John Graves, who killed an unknown

Take Bromo-Seltzer for insemnia Herore retiring - trial bottle 10 cents.

MURDER AND ROBBERY. OKLAHOMA CITY, O. T., Nov. 6-A negro named Clark and his wife and daughter were found in their cabin in the couna negro who lived with them Mrs. Clark is dead and the others can

MARSHALL FIELD & CO. AT WORLD'S

WORLD'S FAIR. CHICAGO, Nov. 7 — Marshall Field & Co, on their one direct exhibit, that of linens, have been awarded highest honors at the world's fair. Their linen department is declared by foreign experts to be unsurpassed in the weri-

SHOT BY HIS WIFE. Sr. Louis, Nov. 6.-John Miner was shot dead this morning at his home at 910 Morgan street he his deserted wife. For some time Miner had been dividing his attentions between two women. The wife

QUITE A DIFFERENCE. NEBRASEA CITY, Neb., Nuv. 6.—Dan and Floyal Smith, negroes, are in jail in tota city, charged with attempting to hold up a Missouri Pacific passenger train at Union on Saturday hight. They claim that then that they were only attempting to steal a

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS.

How Mrs. Vranklin Secured Her New Clothes.

When Saturday was over and Mr. and Mrs. Vranklin were alone by themselves in the clean kitchen, sitting beside the stove, Mrs. Vranklin rose, went into her bedroom and brought out a bundle of

"I want you to look at these things, Jeremiah," she said, mildly. "What are they?" said he,

She spread them out on the floor. "That is my best dress," she said.
"Those are my best shoes. That is the only bonnet I've got in the world but my calico sun-bonnet, and that is my Sunday shawl." She uttered the words quietly, and "Well?" said Mr. Vranklin, still smok-

"Well?" she answered.

He said nothing. She gathered sgarments with a look of disdain, and piled them on a chair.

"You're a rich man," she said.
"Rich, for a farmer. You are sixty and fifty years old. Our boys are married. I haven't had any money to spend for five years. I'm a sight to behold. If I were a servant I should get wages and not have to beg. No, I don't beg, Jeremiah. Since you don't offer it yourself, I'm going to tell you that I want money. I want a hundred dolreally destitute. Why, I'm out of fianthe elbow. My shoe heels are twisted. I can't go to church any more, for I've turned my black silk twice, and the back breadths upside down. I've washed my bonnet ribbons. I've done all I could rather than ask for what you didn't offer; and there's no need. You're well-to-do. I want to be decent and take a little comfort while I I must. There, nowl It's my right!"

She had spoken her mind, and Mr. Vranklin felt that a climax had arrived. He had "laid by" a large sum. He was growing old and had no need to pinch, but the awful demand for a hundred dollars all in a lump was too much for him. He had become used to Eva Maria's quiet way of mending her old clothes and asking for no money, and it had never occurred to him that she would some time come down upon him like this

He stared silently, and puffed across the stove the smoke of the cheap tobacco he burnt in a common corn-cob pipe. The old rag carpet was clean. The old chairs were mended with carpet bottoms. It was all tidy, but nothing was new. Nothing pretty but the scarlet geraniums in their big pots on the window-sill. He had given his wife very little in their thirty years of married life; for all the furniture was his mother's. She had helped him make his fortune, selling butter and eggs and pot-cheese and flower roots, feeding the hands cheaply and well, weeding vegetables and even riding the mowing machine, now and thea-though not very lately. Conscience told him that he ought to pull from his vest pocket the crisp hundred dollar note he had received that morning for some hay at the landing and say: "flere, Eva Maria, why didn't you speak before?" But when greed takes possession of the heart of man, it holds on like a leech. All he said, after the silence had remained unbroken for some minutes.

"Well, Eva Maria, I'll think it over." To some women there is no agony like asking a husband for money.

Eva Maria had nerved herself at last in the misery of her shabbiness to make the speech above recorded, but it seemed a fearful thing to do. She little guessed that she had frightened Jeremiah almost out of his senses.

"A hundred dollars!" he said to himself "She must know what I've got about me. She must mean to have it. Fifty, now, I'd give. But a hundred! I'll get the money changed, and give her fifty."

He opened the door of the passage, crossed it and went into the parlor. It was a cold, neat place, kept sacred for great occasions. It had a grate in it, but it was doubtful if a fire would be lighted there that winter. It had been inconvenient to take it down that summer, so fringed pink paper had been arment to interfere in the coal strike, saying ranged between the polished bars and the rug drawn across the hearth. simply a menace of starvation and despair | Photographs of several members of the "We family hung by red cords from the wall, dotted musiin certains with neatly fluted ruffles covered the green paper blinds. A dish of wax fruit, covered by a glass shade, ornamented the center-table, and the horsehair furniture had been so little used in two generations that it looked almost new. vases on the mantle were old-fashioned blue ware, for which a china-worship-

a er would have paid a great price. Eva Maria should have fifty dollars, but she had said she had a right to a hundred. If he gave her the bill in his pocket she would spend it. It was Sat-urday evening; he could not get it changed that night-no, not until Monday. If he locked it up, she would know, and take it out, perhaps, and do as she pleased with it. She had declared her "right" to it. Eva Maria, humblest of the humble, meekest of the meek, had spoken so! Could it be?

"This comes of these here strongminded meetin's," said Mr. Vranklin. This was not logical, for Mrs. Vranklin had not attended one of them.

"Women used to be biddable. They try northeast of here with their throats out and skulls factured by blows from an body—" soliloquized Mr. Vranklin, axe. They were assaulted and robbed of growing more and more ungrammatare kicking over the traces now. body-" soliloquized Mr. Vranklin, ical with his wrath-"nobody ain't goin' to ride over me, 'specially a wife of mine. I must hide the money until I can change it. She might look into my pockets. She said she had a right to it, and she looked determined."

At this moment he heard a movement in the kitchen. He believed it to be his wife about to come in search of him and tried to think faster.

The vases! Should be hide the note there? No: there were still some asters in the garden, and Eva Maria might till the vases with bouquets, as she sometimes did on Sunday afternoons, setting and kissed her. -N. Y. Ledger. them for the nonce on the kitchen mantal. No, the vases would not do. The ingrain carpet was tacked down tight, the-surely there was a step in the passage! The grate! There, under the fringed paper, it might lie safely all

He drew his pocket-book from his bosom and stuffed it between two loose

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are made of refined and concentrated botanical extracts. They're different from the large old-fashioned pills for these Pellets are as thy as mustard seeds, and are sugar-coated. They're made in an improved chemical laboratory under the direct supervision of scientific men. Everything else being equal, the smaller the size of a liver pill, the more comfort. They do not shock the system, but regulate, cleanse and tone up, the liver, stomach, and bowels, in nature's our way.

They're put up in staled glass vials, easily carried in the vest-pocket.

In Bilious Disorders, Sick Headache, Constipation, indigestion, Dizaness, or for breaking up sudden attacks of Colds, Fevers, and Indammation, "Pleasant Pellets" are prompt and effective in action.

Peculiar in the way they're sold, too, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.

A certain and lasting cure, for the worst

A certain and lasting cure, for the werst Catarrh in the Head, is guaranteed by the makers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

pink fringes of the paper concealed it. All was safe. He creaked across the passage into the kitchen with a consciousness of great meanness in his heart. Mrs. Vranklin, having executed her terrible intention, had taken flight to her bedroom, where she sat in the cold with a little shawl over her shoulders, trembling. He said something aloud about seeing Jones about those pigs, and fled the house, and the lars to buy me some new clothes to two held no more conversation until hold"—on these Auglicisms the gov-feel decent and comfortable in. I'm breakfast time. Then Mr. Vranklin, ernesses of a century have, it would y destitute. Why, I'm out of fian-My calico gowns are patched at while his wife stayed at home to cook dinner, no one else being at hand to do

> Just as the beef was so far done that she could open the oven doors there came a knock upon the door, and opening it she saw upon the porch her Cousin Brown and the minister. Church was out, and Cousin Brown had brought the reverend gentleman to his friends' to dine. Mrs. Vranklin received both stance, by Goldsmith's famous couples: hospitably, and hastened to usher them into the parlor. The yellow artemisias shone bravely in the big blue vases. Mr. Vranklin had been wise not to hide his money there; but it was cold-very cold.

"I'll light a fire," said the good woman. "It won't take a minute. It's the first fire of the season, or I'd have the grate fixed."

She tucked the paper down into the grate, the easiest way to be rid of it, piled on wood and placed the scuttle ready. As she struck the match she gave a little cry, but repressed it instantly. The flames blazed up merrily and roared behind the blower.

When Mr. Vranklin returned the blower was down and the two men were warming their feet at a compact mass of red coal.

He looked at his Eva Maria. Her cold, composed New England face, with its high nose and close-cut mouth, betrayed no emotion.

"She don't know what she has done!" he said to himself; but he did.

The ghost of that hundred dollars stared at him from the embers. He could not talk, he could not compose himself. Cousin Brown opined he was not well. The minister remarked that "in the midst of life we are in death." and seemed to prophesy his funeral. It was not a gay dinner, but then it was Sunday.

That night Mrs. Vranklin missed her spouse from his bed. She went to look for him, and found him poking in the ashes of the dead fire with the tongs. He looked up with a very red face. "I don't think these here coals kin be good," he said, confusedly. "Did you get up in the night He made no answer and returned to

Next morning his wife again attacked "Have you thought that matter over?"

she asked. Indeed he had, and it had occurred to him that Providence had prepared a special judgment for him in destroying that money. He felt that his wife had spoken the truth. She had a right to decent clothes-she who had served him so well for so many years. "I've thought it over, Eva Maria," he said, and arose and went to his desk, a queer, old-fashioned one built in the ouse wall. When he returned, he brought with him a blank check.

"Get what you like, my dear," he said, "and get it nice. Fill the check up just as you please." He had not called her "my dear" for years. She smiled up at him very gently; tears were near his eyes. However, she used the check to dress herself comfortably. It was the first time for many years that she had indulged in the luxury of shopping freely. At night he met her at the depot. loaded with parcels tired but smiling. He had not seen her so bright for many a day. After tea that night they sat together beside the stove as before, and she looked at him in a neculiar way. "You didn't seem to ifeel cheerful

Sunday afternoon, Jeremiah," she remarked. "What alled you?" "I don't want to tell you," he swered. "But I'll tell you," she said. "You thought I burned the pocketbook you hid in the grate. I didn't." She put her hand into her work-basket and drew it out intact, with the money in it. "I was just in time," she said. "But I understood at once when I saw it sticking between the bricks. If you hadn't given me the check, I should have spent the money. There's a confession for you, Jeremiah!"

He looked at her, half angry, half astonished. She arose and came to him, and put her hands on his shoulders. "But I should never have enjoyed wearing them." she said. "I should have bated them. I think. These that I bought to-day, with your free gift, I

The man looked at her with a feeling that a strange revelation of feminine human nature had been made to him, but all ne said was: "Why, Eva Maris, I want to know!

shall love while there's a rag of them and he drew her down upon his knee -Customer (in book store)-"I would like to get some good book on faith." Clerk-"Sorry, sir, but our rule is to sell nothing to strangers except for cash." -When Queen Elizabeth, of Austria. entered Paris in 1751 she dragged after her a train seventy feet in length. It bricks at the back of the grate. The i was borne by thirty-five pages.

ERRORS A CENTURY AGO.

Miss Helena Wells Warned Her Pupils Not to Say "Pinafore." The letters of the excellent Miss Helena Wells, written in 1794, "on Subjects of Importance to the Happiness of Young Females," have long passed into the dusty regions of an cient libraries; but when she added from her long experience as a governess, "a few practical Lessons on the Improprieties of Language and Er-rors of Pronunciation, which frequently occur in common Conversation," she touched upon a subject of perennial interest, stili green after a hundred years.

In looking over her lists of vulgar errors it is curious to find that the very peculiarities we now associate with Mr. Samuel Weller are among those from which it was necessary to wean young ladies of good family in London a century ago. Their teacher warns them not to say "weal" and "winegar," "vill" and "vindor" and "vitch." She begs them on no account to be heard saying "ill-conwenient," "howsever," "hisself," "affeard," or "attackted." She warns them against "nothink" and "handkercher" and "Lunnon." Other inelegancies, still heard freely in high circles in England, and sometimes in America also. were the object of solicitude to this good lady in 1794. The omission of the final g and of the preliminary h. the use of "wile" and "weat" and "beold" for "while" and "wheat" and "beernesses of a century have, it would seem, labored in vain. Other peculiarities, then visible or audible, seem now to have disappeared. Does anyone now say "nympth" and "triumpth," of which she complains? In some cases she simply records a swing of the pendulum, which has since vibrated the other way. She bids them, for instance, say "obleege" for "oblige." Now this was the genteel pronuncistion of the time; as we know, for in-

Dreading e'en tools; by flatterers besieged; And so obliging that he ne'er obliged. Webster and Choate said "obleeged." but we do not now hear it. Miss Wells also affords an instance of the final, exit of a very obvious pronunciation based on etymology, but now quite lost. She tells her pupils that they must not say "pinafore," but "pinbefore." The reason is plain: "afore" was a vulgarism. But in this, as in many other case, the vulgarism has got the upper hand, and cuphony is stronger than etymology. Fancy an opera of "Pinbefore."-Harper's Ba-

"Before you go down-town, Cyrus," said his wife, "you must not forget to leave me fifty cents. I've got to buy some things this morning."

"This abominable extravagance of yours, Belinda," replied Mr. Kneer, opening his pocket-book with visible reluctance, "is what keeps us poor. Where, I should like to know," he continued, becoming excited, "is the fifty cents I gave you last week? What have you done with it? Fifty cents in clean, cold cash, madam, gone in less than six days, and gone for nothing! What have you got to show for it? Do you think I'm made of money?" demanded Mr. Kneer, taking out a coin and slapping it down on the table. "Do you ---'

"Don't say anything more Cyrus!" exclaimed Mrs. Kneer, with tears in her eyes, and putting her hand hurriedly over the money. "I'll not spend any more of it than I am actually obliged to spend, and I thank you ever

With a mollified grunt Cyrus put his purse back in his pocket, took his hat, and went down-town; and in less than half an hour Mrs. Kneer, trembling with eagerness, was on the way to the great dry-goods stores.

For Mr. Cyrus Kneer, by the most calamitous and unaccountable blunder of his whole life, had given her a twenty-dollar gold piece instead of a halfdollar.-Chicago Tribune.

Education Criminal.

The Russian government forbids any one possessed of a superior education occupying any post which brings him into direct communication with the people. During a certain period, when the Russian revolutionary party reck-oned upon a mass rising of the peasantry and wished to hasten this rising by propaganda, several young people after having spent from four to five years in the higher studies, left the universities without passing the final exams or taking their diplomas, in order not to be considered as having more than an average education, and so being enabled to obtain employment in the villages. This "fraud," which consisted in renouncing not only all hones of a professional career, but also the pleasures of living in a cultured and intelligent society or enjoying good books, etc., constitutes in the eves of the police a strong aggravation of the "erimes" discovered or even suspected. -The Idler.

Bleycles Useless in War. The use of the bicycle for military purposes, after having developed with great rapidity in France, has suddenly received a check. Gen. Loizillon, the minister of war, has, it appears, little the eyelist corps are only to be used on prepared ground. even if no account is taken of the strike. Gliding alowly toward him, liability of the machines to break is sourcely ripping the surface of the likely to cause serious miscalculations, and they can only rarely be substituted for men on horseback. The cyclists shark-a "man-enter;" such as in forhenceforth, therefore, or until some mer days followed in the wakes of capsuccessor to Gen Lorizilion more favorable to them is appointed, will be re-served, by his instructions for garrison duty, for the great manenvers, and in time of war for certain easy communications at the rear of the forces. -London News. Must Have Known It. He-Does your doctor know I call to see you often?

She-He must. He said I needed rest. -Brookiva Life.

-The dictator was a Roman magistrate, who in times of great public peril was invested with absolute power For over four hundred years this office. was regarded with great veneration until Suila and Cosar, by their cruelties, rendered it odious, and it was abolished

-A large forgotten reservoir tras tapped in Lockport, N. Y., the other day by workingmen who were emmenting for a foundation. It belonged to a system of water-works abandoned many

DENTISTS ENDORSE OUAKER OATS

WONDERFUL CURES

At The Kansas State Medical and Surgical Institute an 1 Sanitarium.

Dr. Terrill, our president has just returned from Chicago, where he has been taking another course in the Post Graduate School. The Doctor goes to New York or Chicago every year to take a course in chronic discases and to get all the new ideas, instruments and appliances for their successful treatment. This time the Doctor had the benefit of hearing many foreign professors whose servmany foreign professors whose services had been secured by the Post Graduate School while visiting the World's Fair.

Progress of Medical Science in the past few years—Diseases once considered Incurable now Readily Mastered by Greatly Improved Methods.

THE ABOVE IS A CUT of the instrument used by Dr. Terrill in the examination for extern and all nose and throat diseases. Instruments and modified furnished for nours treatment. A written guarantee given in all curable cases.

Dr. Terrill has purchased the wonderful Holtz Statio Battery with the Ozone attachment which is producing such wonderful cures in the cast in diseases of the respiratory organs, such as Asthma, Bronchitis, Hay Fever, Catarrh and Consumption. This treatment cures where all others have failed.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.

We will treat a patient one month and if at that time they are not satisfied with their improvement we will refund them their money. In Terrill has made diseases of women a specialty for the past twenty years, and has taken several courses of private instructions in gynecology under some of the leading Specialists of the East.

NERVOUS DISEASES D. Terrill assists to call the attention of those suffering from Nervous Diseases, Paralysis, Nervous Prostration, Semiral Weakness, Etc., to the wonderful curstive effects of Electricity when scientifically applied.

VARICOCELE—Cansing vital issues, disepondency, Etc. permanently cufed; no cutting. SELN DISEASES—All kinds cured where others have failed.

REFUNATISM—Positively cured by the aid of electricity.

PILES FISTILA—And all restal diseases cured. No lunfe, no pain. Cure guaranteed. URB TIAL STRUCTURE—Quickly and permanently cured by Electrolysis. No cutting no pain, no money mult cured.

Dr. Terrill has taken several special courses in Electricity under such famous Specialists as Dr. Franklich, Martin of Cincara, Dr. Cleaves and A. D. Rockwell the world renoway.

Electrician of New York City.

TO YOUNG AND MIDDLE AGED MEN. A SURE CURE The awful effects of early vice which being organic were guarantee to cure you or no pay.

We give you a per onal examination free and if your case is a curable one we will tell so, and if we take you to treat will give you a written guarantee of a positive cure on any ac following diseases.

Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs. Catarrh. Piles, Lost Manhood, Nervous Prestration, Varicocele, Hydrocele, Encumatism, Stricture, Skin Disease. Syphilis in All its Forms Seminal Hydrocele, Syphilis in Weakness, Electrical Surgical and Medical Instruments and Appliances than any other institute in the Scuthwest. Come and see us and if you don't find us as represented we will pay your railroad fare and hetel bill while visiting us. Correspondence will receive prompt attention. Our book of 75 pages s.nt free on application.

Twenty rooms in the Institute for the accommodation of patients.

ALL HALLOWS ACADEMY.

158 NORTH MAIN STREET, WICHITA, KANSAS.

FOR 1893-94. WICHITA, KANSAS.

This Academy, established in 1887, possesses every advantage that parents can desire for general improvement of their children.

The alto is attractive, and, as experience has proved, most advantageous for the promotion could be alto. The grounds are heat and spacious, affording means for the experience of

The Sisters of Charley of the E. V. M., being especially devoted to the instruction of youth, and no police to win the heart to virtue, and they imparate their pupils a solid and refined the larship. With a virilant and immediate enperintendance, they provide for the wants and imports of the enlidgen interpreted to incir care, studies will be resumed the first Monday in September.

SISTER SUPERIOR,

SISTER SUPERIOR, All Hallows Academy, Withita, Kannas

OUTWITTING A SHARK. The Wonderful Presence of Mind of a Boy

in Danger. On board the good ship "Vincennes," during a cruise in the Pacific ocean, a party of English and American officers were one day in the cabin talking cheerfully of the cape and the cruise, when, as if by magic, every counte-nance changed. Spellbound for an instant, all sat intently listening. There was a strange commotion in the ship. Then came that noise of hurrying feet, unaccompanied by the voice of command, which, breaking the silence of a well-disciplined man-of-war, and echoing below, inspires a creeping fear of unknown evil. There were, too, halfsuppressed exclamations of alarm, in which were caught the ominously coupled words: Boyl" In a moment all were on deck. Glancing over the side rail, we saw in a rowbout moored to the end faith in it. He has issued an order that of the side boom, a few feet from the side, one of the ship's boys, a bright, chaerful little little fellow, standing In time of war, he says, their use, erect, holding a boat-hook ready to > tured slavers, prizes to her Majesty's cruisers on the coast. The cress of the Vincennes stood aghast, powerless to aid. Some called to the boy toolie down in the boat: others shouted to him to pull away. Pet, wholly intent on the movements of the fearful creature, he did not hear water, through which its broad back could be plainly seen was a great white them. We had not long to wait; the shark came on, raising its head out of the water, so that its sinister eyes could be seen. Pressing heavily on the wale of the boat, it bore down the side

We expected to see the boat roll over upon the shark, and held our breath.

Down came the iron-pointed beat-hook with all the force a boyish arm could give it. A blow, and then a enick thrust, and the light best, buovant as a feather, slipped out from under the shark's head and righted herself. It was a gallant sight to see that sailor boy standing undaunted before what might indeed be called the jaws of death. Rapidly and well did he ply his weapon. The shark, baffled drew back as if to take measure of the brave little fellow, preparatory to a final rush which should seal the boy's fate. In that perilous instant, cool and collectnd, seizing the painter with one hand while he pointed the boat-hook with the other, to ward off the shark's attack, the boy quickly drew the boat under the rope-ladder, and, springing up, climbed to the boom, along which he tripped lightly to the ship .- St.

Pather-Little Johnny appears to be hard at work out in the yard. What is he doing? Mother-I don't know, but if he is working hard, it is play.-Good News.

Up to Date. Oh, butcher, when I deal with thee All protiment is dead; Take back the beart thou gavest me And give me ham instead. -Washington News

J. POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE - JUST TRY IT.